CORRESPONDING LETTER

To the messengers and churches of the Original Bear Creek Association, together with our corresponding Associations, and the Churches with whom we correspond.

Greetings: Through the mercy of God, we have been blessed to meet in peace and fellowship again. One more year has passed and gone. We are traveling here as pilgrims and strangers, and unknown by the world, but known, and we believe, beloved, by our God and Father.

We surely appreciate your presence. Your ministers have come preaching salvation by God's grace. The new birth is brought about by the sovereign work of God's spirit. We surely believe that God will fulfill all of His promises. He will do exactly what He said that he would do, and our home in heaven depends upon God carrying out His sacred promises.

We also believe that His Church and People should obey the instructions set forth by Jesus Christ and the apostles. Our fellowship and peace in, and with the Church, hinges in a large measure upon obeying and respecting these sacred principles, in doctrine, practice, and discipline.

We are taught to love God and one another. Love casts out fear. Love works no evil toward one another. The more we manifest our love to one another, the stronger the bonds of fellowship become, but where there is no love manifested, coldness, strife, and every evil imagination will arise to plague the brethren. Better things are required of us, because the love of God has been shed abroad in our hearts, by the Holy Spirit.

May God grant that this correspondence of love and fellowship continue with each Church and Association.

Come to visit us more often. We are looking forward to seeing you next year. May the love of God, and the grace of Jesus Christ, and the communion of the Holy Spirit, be with each of you now and forevermore.

In Love and Hope,

—Elder C. M. Mills

IN MEMORIAM

Although we have had many happy seasons of rejoicing since our last association, we have shed tears of sorrow over the death of some of our precious loved ones. They have left a vacancy in our various churches in the Associations, but they have also left fond memories which we all cherish. May that vacancy be filled with the light of God's love, and the sweet memories remain in our hearts.
